

LAGARDE

1897

VIOGNIER 2025

Seductive, elegant wines with a well-defined structure, where the aim is to highlight each variety's maximum typicity. Every bottle is born from vineyards carefully selected for their terroir and oenological potential, resulting in balanced and expressive wines.

HISTORY

In 1993, Lagarde planted the first Viognier vineyard in South America. It came from one of the clones brought directly by the owner from the Côte du Rhône, France. At the time, it marked a true innovation for the region's wine industry.

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

100% Viognier

Alcohol: 13,2%

Residual sugars: 1,23 g/l.

Total acidity: 6,37 g/l.

PH: 3,25.

Vineyards: Perdriel, Luján de Cuyo – Mendoza.

Planted in: 1993 (first Viognier vineyard in South America)

Altitude: 980 masl.

Aging potential: up to 3 years from harvest

TASTING NOTES

- Bright yellow with greenish and golden hues, reflecting both youth and complexity.
- Expressive and enveloping, with floral and ripe tropical fruit notes. Subtle hints of spice, such as cinnamon adding depth and elegance.
- Fresh and vibrant, with strong character. Its aromatic complexity is confirmed on the palate, with a rich, textured mouthfeel and a long, persistent finish.

PAIRING SUGGESTIONS

A perfect match for Asian-inspired cuisine, rich-textured fish such as salmon or tuna, seafood dishes, and rice-based preparations.

